KARATE by Corey H.

I am in Karate. I'm a blue belt. A blue belt is the 5th belt. I only need three more belts until I'm a black belt. The order of belts is white, yellow, orange, green, blue, purple, brown, and black. Many of the Karate moves are in a different type of language. The language is Japanese. I'm kind of a Sensei. A Sensei is a teacher. If you get 100 points you get a star. Stars are very good. I have 20 points. Some of the moves are: roundhouse kick, lunge punch, formal attention blue belt, forward punch, and reverse punch. You can do Karate tournaments. I have four 3rd place trophies. One of them is up to my chest. You should do Karate too!

MY INTERVIEW WITH MRS. KURTH by Mario M.

Mrs. Kurth has been a teacher at Benson for the past fifteen years. When I was in first grade, Mrs. Kurth was my teacher. She made the first grade very special for me. First grade can be very hard for kids to adjust to, for some it's the first time that they are away from home all day. Mrs. Kurth said that when she was in school her favorite subject was writing poetry. I asked Mrs. Kurth what she would be if she were not a teacher, and she said she would like to be a songwriter. Maybe this is why she likes to play the piano and sing songs in her spare time. When you think about it, songs are poetry just in a different tune. I hope that my little brother will have the pleasure of having Mrs. Kurth next year when he is in first grade, because Mrs. Kurth is the kind of teacher that every child loves to have.

INTERVIEW WITH MISS BERAN

by Valerie G.

Miss Beran is the Benson Primary School music teacher and has been for the past year. Before coming to Benson, Miss Beran was a private instrument teacher for five years. She became a teacher because she loves music and kids.

Miss Beran has learned how to play all musical instruments, but her favorite instrument is the flute. She has performed in many school plays, including Fiddler on the Roof, Evita, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Edwin Drood, and West Side Story. Miss Beran has never sung in a school play, but she did play the flute in the pit orchestra. Her favorite song in the Benson winter program was "All For One," and her favorite musical note is the sixteenth note.

Miss Beran has one pet, a dog, and enjoys reading in her free time. She has two younger brothers and has lived in Colorado and Greece. Her favorite movie is "A Room With a View" and she enjoys all types of music. Miss Beran's favorite songs are "Enigma Variations" by Elgar and "Tune from County Derry," by Grainger. Her favorite food is McDonald's, and her favorite color is purple. Miss Beran loves the winter and would enjoy visiting New York one day.

I have enjoyed interviewing Miss Beran, and I love having her as my music teacher. She makes learning about music fun. Thank you Miss Beran for doing such a great job!

BASKETBALL by Kyle S.

Each team has five players on the court. You want to shoot in the other team's basket. Each basket is two points. If you shoot behind the three-point line, it counts as three points. If you get fouled, you get to shoot free throws. Free throws are worth one point. If you don't dribble, it is a travel. Then the other team gets the ball. I play for WIBA. My team's name is the Celtics. On my team are Scott, Joey, Allison, Anthony, John, Justin, and Brittany. I like to play basketball!

SWINGING THROUGH THE JUNGLE

by Alexa V.

My cousins have a really cool Playstation game. It is called Tarzan. Tarzan is full of adventure. Tarzan swings on vines, surfs on broken logs, climbs vines, jumps on mushrooms, saves baby gorillas, fights animals, hangs on monkey bars, crawls on the ground, and runs from bad guys. There are about 20 levels. The levels get harder and harder the more levels you play. This is a fun game to play on Playstation 2.

CHRISTOPHER GUZIK'S INTERVIEW WITH MRS. REUTER by Chris G.

My name is Christopher, and I chose to interview Mrs. Reuter because she was my 2nd grade teacher before she went to the Media Center. I know some things about her, but I wanted you to know about her too!

I asked Mrs. Reuter if she has any pets. She said that she has three Bengal cats, and their names are Jax, Boomer, and Rudy. I asked her what her favorite food is, and she said seafood and pasta. Then we started talking about her favorite hobbies, which are singing, acting, and taking photographs. I also asked what her favorite holiday is. She said Christmas Day, not because of the presents, but because of family getting together and Jesus' birth. Also, she likes New Year's Eve because she has a HUGE party at her house with 100 of her closest friends and family.

Then we started talking about what her favorite grade was when she was little. She said she had two: 2nd grade because Mrs. Crook cast her in her first play, and 5th grade because Mr. Manion was her first man teacher. He threw sourball candy at the class when they got a correct answer. I also asked her what her ALL TIME favorite children's book is. She said, Where the Wild Things Are because it was the first book she remembered checking out of the library. I asked her why she decided to start teaching. She told me the short version was everyone told her that she should be a teacher. So she did the opposite. After being in the business world for ten years, the "calling" to be a teacher was too strong to ignore. So that's when she started teaching.

MY VACATION by Kellie S.

On vacation I went to three hotels. We went with our friends Janelle, Robbie, and Ashley. My brother Mark and my sister Nicole went also. Mark and Robbie were crazy, hitting and punching each other. In the last hotel we shared the same hotel room. When we got to our hotel we were running into each other's rooms because they were connected. The hotels were called The Beach and Yacht Club, The Grand Floridian, and the third hotel was Disney's Vero Beach. At the Grand Floridian there was a funny maid. She gave us chocolate. She put Buzz Lightyear holding the remote control and she made a towel dog, duck, and bunny. It was fun staying at three different hotels.

SEPTEMBER 11, 2001 by Patrick D.

Tuesday, September 11, 2001 in the morning a plane crashed. It crashed into one of the two towers of the World Trade Center. The people turned on the T.V. They thought the pilot of the plane hit the building by mistake. A short while later, another airplane hit the other tower. When the second hit happened, the United States realized some group or groups were trying to hurt and scare us. The name of the people who do this are called terrorists. Then a third plane crashed into the Pentagon in Washington, D.C. A fourth plane was headed to Washington, D.C., but the people on the plane were able to stop the terrorists. The plane ended up crashing in a field in Pennsylvania. People from all over the country and the world wanted to help the people in New York and Washington, D.C. People all over the country became patriotic. Firefighters and policemen went to New York City. Children and parents helped collect money. Many homes and businesses put up a flag. It was a sad day, but United We Stand.

MY TRIP TO HAWAII

by Vicki P.

Over Christmas break I went to Hawaii. Hawaii is a lot of fun. I went there for twelve days. I went with my mom, dad, Joey, and Alex. I went snorkeling at Hanauma Bay. I saw a lot of different fish. I also walked up Diamond Head. Diamond Head is an extinct volcano. My brother and I took surfing lessons. I also took a canoe ride and went to a luau. On New Year's Eve there were fireworks. We had an ocean view room with a big balcony. I'd love to go again.

A DAY AT HOME WITH ANTHONY

by Anthony D.

One day I was fishing. I was throwing big black rocks into the lake and I fell in. When I fell in I swallowed a big splash of water. The next day I got very sick. My mom took me to the doctor. The doctor said he did not know what was the matter with me. On the way home I was crying salty tears. My mom got fed up and gave me her lipstick to play with. When she looked back I was covered with brown lipstick. It did not stop me from crying. My mom did not know what to do after that.

MY PUPPY PEARL

by Amanda Z.

Last summer I got a new puppy. She is a Toy Fox Terrier and her name is Pearl. She is named Pearl because she was born on Pearl Harbor Day. Pearl Harbor Day is on December 7th. My puppy is white and has a big black spot on her left shoulder. Her head is black and she has a small brown spot by each eye. She has brown and white on each side of her snout.

Toy Fox Terriers have short hair and shed very little. They also have short tails. Toy Fox Terriers are small dogs. My dog weighs about 9 pounds. My puppy can run very fast. She likes to play fetch and tug-of-war with her toy. My puppy loves to cuddle with me, and she sleeps with me every night. I take very good care of my puppy. I give her fresh water and feed her. I also take her for walks when the weather is warm. When it is cold outside, my puppy wears a sweater.

I am so happy my parents let me get a puppy. I love my puppy and think that she is so cute. I think that Toy Fox Terriers make very good pets. They like children, and they are smart dogs.

INTERVIEW WITH MISS SCHASCHWARY

by Brianna E.

Last week I had the opportunity to speak with Miss Schaschwary, one of our kindergarten teachers, and I asked her a few questions I had prepared.

Most of us know Miss Schaschwary's favorite animal is a dog. I asked her what her next favorite animal would be. She said that it would be an otter. I also asked her what her favorite movie was this year, and of all time. Her favorite movie this year was "Shrek", and her favorite movie of all time is "It's A Wonderful Life". She has no special musical group or music she enjoys, she likes it all! Miss Schaschwary's favorite male movie star is Mel Gibson. Her favorite female star is Julia Roberts. Miss Schaschwary's funniest memory of second grade are the silly recesses they used to have. She has two brothers and no sisters. Her birthday is June 20th, and don't you forget it!

ATV OFFROAD FURY 2 IS AN AWESOME GAME by Marco R.

I love video games. I got Playstation when I was 4 years old, and I have lots and lots of games. After I heard that Playstation 2 was coming out, I asked my parents if I could get it. It was the number one thing I wanted last Christmas-but I didn't get it. This year it was number one on my Christmas list again, and my parents finally decided to buy it for me! I got a couple of games for Christmas, but I knew I wanted more games. One of our friends gave me a Best Buy gift card-so I definitely knew what I wanted to buy with it.

I bought ATV Off Road Fury 2. The price of the game was $39.99, and it is rated {e} for everyone. It is a game where you control a quad bike. You can pick your driver, your quad, and where you drive it. You can also pick if you want to race or do freestyle. One or two players can play the game and up to four players can play with a multi-tap connector. You can do awesome tricks. You can do a nac-nac, a no-footed can can, a boogie night, a shaolin, a scorpion, a cliff hanger, an Indian air, a one-handed Indian air, a bar hop, a cat nac, and lots more cool tricks. You score different amounts of points for each trick that you land.

This game is very fun to play and very challenging to do the tricks!

MY PET GERBIL by Kara C.

I have a gerbil named Nibbles. We bought her on November 15th. Nibbles is a Mongolian Gerbil with white, brown, and black fur, and very long whiskers. She is cute and cuddly and fun to hold. Nibbles likes to run on a wheel in her cage, and when she runs very fast she flips out. That makes me laugh! We sometimes put her in an exercise ball, and she rolls all around the house. She likes to climb in tubes and climb on the bars in her cage. She likes to sleep in a small, high compartment. She chews on paper towel rolls to make her nest. Nibbles chews on anything she can, even my shirt when I hold her! She eats sunflower seeds, corn, and she really likes to eat Wheaties and Cheerios for a treat. I clean her cage every week and give her fresh food and water. I love my pet gerbil!

DRAGONBALL Z BUDOKAI by Will T.

I have a game called D.B.Z. Budokai. D.B.Z. Budokai is for Playstation 2. Budokai is the name of a Japanese tournament. Budokai is an action game. There are 23 characters (guys). Some of their names are Goku, Gohan, Piccolo, Cell, and #16. He's an android. My favorite guy is Cell, because he is strong and he has three forms. These forms are puny (weak), big (strong), and medium (strongest). You start out with five guys, and you have to unlock 18 of the characters in order to get halfway through the game. There are three levels: novice, adept, and advanced. You should try DBZ Budokai because it is challenging and fun. Other games I like to play are RISK, Simpsons Chess, and Rollercoaster Tycoon.

LET THE DUEL BEGIN!

by Patrick W.

YU-GI-OH began in Japan as a comic. Now you can see it in the United States on T.V. YU-GI-OH is an interactive T.V. card game. That means you can play along.

Since the T.V. show became popular, cards were made. The YU-GI-OH trading card game is awesome. You can buy starter decks and that is all you need to begin to play. There are two types of starter decks: Yugi and Kaiba. The starter decks have 50 cards, 1 game mat and a rule book. You can build a deck by collecting booster packs.

The object of the game is to win a match against your opponent. A single match consists of 3 duels. The player who wins 2 duels is the winner, and 1 win and 2 draws is also a winner. If any time during your duel you have any forbidden cards or Exodia, you instantly win.

There are 3 types of card monsters: Magic and Trap Cards. I really like the collecting of the cards. Some cards are absolutely cool, like Blue Eyes White Dragon, Red Eyes, Dark Magician, Summon Skull, Pot of Greed, Monster Reborn, Dark Hole, and Change of Heart. This is a cool game and I hope I explained a part of it for you. Happy dueling!

“PRINCESS DIARIES”

MOVIE REVIEW

by Lauren L.

“Princess Diaries” is a story about a young, shy, unpopular high school girl that finds out she is a princess of a country called Genovia. The girl's name is Mia (Amelia), and she finds out she is a princess when her grandmother comes to visit her and tells her that she is probably going to be a princess and take over Genovia one day. Her friend Lilly is excited when she finds out she is a princess, but then she gets mad and jealous because everyone wants to be Mia's friend now. Mia tries to make it up to her by telling her she can go with her to the annual Genovia Independence Ball. Before the ball she goes to a beach party and ends up meeting the boy that she has had a crush on since the fourth grade. A helicopter comes to the beach party and tries to get a story about the new princess. The boy she has a crush on takes her to a beach shed to hide. They step out of the shed and people pop off of the roof and surprise them. Mia does not like the idea of being a princess and does not want to be a princess any more. Her real friends, Lilly and her brother, help her in her decision, but she makes the final decision for herself. The movie is my favorite movie and it is the best movie I have ever seen. I think everyone would enjoy it.
